

"The two musicians play with passion and intelligence and are obviously having a great deal of fun playing together."

Driftwood Magazine

"Flawless front lines from Langlands followed by powerful piano accompaniment to some energetic fiddling from Graubæk."

Folkworld

"For enjoying and dancing, well played with craftsmanship and a smile."

fRoots

Rannok is known for their intense energy and unique interaction. They play traditional and contemporary Danish folk music.

The music is played with a modern touch with new compositions and exciting arrangements where the fiddle and piano weaves together in a rich tapestry of classical, folk and jazz music.

Expect energetic polkas, atmospheric ballads and warm-hearted waltzes, that speaks to the heart and the feet, and get the audience of their chairs

The duo consists of one of Denmark's top fiddlers, Michael Graubæk, selected as National Fiddler in 2014. Pianist Theis Langlands has also won several prizes. They have played numerous concerts in Denmark and abroad.

The band has recently released their third album. Their debut was awarded "Debut of the Year" at Danish Music Awards Folk in 2011.